

CALL FOR PAPERS

Adult Education Quarterly

Editors:

Jeff Zacharakis, Kansas State University

Leona English, St. Francis of Xavier University, Canada

Catherine Hansman, Cleveland State University

Qi Sun, University of Tennessee, Knoxville

The Adult Education Quarterly (AEQ) is an international, scholarly, refereed journal committed to advancing the understanding and practice of adult and continuing education. AEQ is currently interested in student research exploring a broad range of topics in the field of adult education. We are primarily interested in dissertation level research with a focus on empirically based studies. Our intent is to facilitate an opportunity for student research in the field of adult education to be highlighted and shared. Please note that all manuscripts will undergo a blind review process. Therefore, any submissions to AEQ will need to meet specific submission and publication standards.

aeq.sagepub.com

Published in Association with American Association for Adult and Continuing Education

Submit your manuscripts online at
<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/aeq>

CALL FOR PAPERS

AEQ strives to be inclusive in scope, addressing topics and issues of significance to scholars and practitioners concerned with diverse aspects of adult and continuing education across the globe. AEQ publishes research employing a variety of methods and approaches, including (but not limited to) survey research, experimental designs, case studies, ethnographic observations and interviews, grounded theory, phenomenology, historical investigations, and narrative inquiry as well as articles that address theoretical and philosophical issues pertinent to adult and continuing education. Innovative and provocative scholarship informed by diverse orientations is encouraged, including (but not limited to) positivism, post-positivism, constructivism, critical theory, feminism, race-based/Africentric, gay/lesbian, poststructural/postmodern theories, Confucianism, Ubuntu, and others originated in different parts of the world. AEQ aims to stimulate a problem-oriented, critical approach to research and practice, with an increasing emphasis on interdisciplinary and international perspectives. The audience includes researchers, students, and adult and continuing education practitioners of many orientations including teachers, trainers, facilitators, resource persons, organizational developers, community organizers, and policy designers.

Contributions may include any of the following:

- Inquiry orientations including (but not limited to): positivism, constructivism, critical theory, feminism, race-based/Africentric, gay/lesbian, and poststructural/postmodern theories, Confucianism, Ubuntu, and others originated in different parts of the world.
- Research studies including (but not limited to): survey research, experimental designs, case studies, ethnographic observations and interviews, grounded theory, phenomenology, historical investigations, and narrative inquiry
- Theoretical and philosophical analyses
- Critical, integrative reviews of adult and continuing education literature
- Forum essays (position statements or reasoned critiques of articles previously published in AEQ)
- Book reviews-contact John Holst, JDHOLST@stthomas.edu.

If you would like to submit a manuscript please contact the AEQ Editorial Office at AEQJournal@ksu.edu for more information or visit our AEQ site <http://aeq.sagepub.com> for submission details.

Submit your manuscripts online at
<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/aeq>