

SAMPLE LETTER TO EDITORS EXPLAINING PRIOR DATASET USE BY CO-AUTHORS

Dear Editors at Business & Society:

Please find our manuscript titled, "XXX" for review at Business & Society. This paper examines....

We would like to point out that there have been other manuscripts from this database previously published by one of the authors in different publication outlets (e.g. xxx and xxx, 20xx; xx and xx, 20xx), as the (database) is a well-established database widely used for numerous management studies. However, this manuscript differs from previous publications as it uses a new set of variables and considers..., which has not yet been explored using this particular dataset. In addition, we would also mention that this article has not been previously published or is under review elsewhere...."
