Collection: A Journal for Museum and Archives Professionals invites articles on the subject of collections in the areas of scholarly research, case studies, guidelines, and discussions and interviews. In addition, proposals are invited for focus issues of the journal that seek to present a range of perspectives on a single topic.

Manuscripts submitted to Collections should not be under consideration by any other publishers, nor may the manuscript have been previously published elsewhere. If a manuscript is based on a lecture, reading, or talk, specific details should accompany the submission.

A complete manuscript submission shall include the following:

- An abstract of no more than 150 words
- Manuscript (At the head of your submission, please include appropriate contact details that will appear in print. Contact details should include: name, title, institutional affiliation, and email.)
- Notes, References (Bibliographies and references should conform to Chicago Manual of Style, 17th edition, Notes and Bibliography)
- Illustrations (up to five figures or tables may be included with your submission). Captions should include appropriate credits. Authors are responsible for observing the laws of copyright when quoting or reproducing material and for any reproduction fees incurred.
- Journal Contributor Agreement

Entire issues of the journal may be developed around a single topic, such as provenance research. A proposal for a focus issue of the journal shall include the following:

- 300-word proposal as to the timeliness and relevance of this topic
- Draft Call for Papers to be used for solicitation of manuscripts OR a list of authors to be approached about writing on this topic. When appropriate, make specific reference to current work in this field, previously published scholarship, or the absence of such work.
- CV of proposer(s) who will serve as Guest Editor/s and will work with the Editor to develop the issue of the Journal.

Submit your manuscripts online at mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cjx
Introduction by the Editor
Juilee Decker

Introduction by Editor and Guest Editor
Juilee Decker and Barbara Wood

A Review of the Concept of Authenticity in Heritage, With Particular Reference to Historic Houses
Barbara Wood, Regional Curator, National Trust (England, Wales & Northern Ireland UK) & Doctoral Researcher, Heritage Professional Doctorate Programme, University of Hertfordshire UK

“It Feels like You Have Stepped Back in Time”: Implementing Authenticity Research in Henry VIII’s Kitchens at Hampton Court Palace
Aileen Peirce, Head of Interpretation & Design, Historic Royal Palaces; Dan Jackson, Curator of Historic Buildings; Richard Fitch, Historic Kitchens Manager; and Aaron Manning, Interpretation Manager

Borrowed Notion of Authenticity: Viewing Authenticity of Historic Houses in India Using a Western Lens
Sanaeya Vandrewala, Conservation Architect, MA in Conservation Studies (Historic Buildings) Assistant Professor at Kamla Raheja Institute for Architecture and Environmental Studies, Mumbai, India

From Suffragist Shrine to Reformer’s Home: The Evolving Interpretation of the National Susan B. Anthony Museum & House
Michelle Furlano, Ph.D. Candidate, University of Rochester, NY, USA

The Oldest Convent in Madrid
Consuelo Sendino, Curator, Natural History Museum, London; Hortensia Chamorro Villanueva, independent scholar, Madrid; Gregorio Yáñez Santiago, archaeologist, Arqueología y Restauración, Soc. Coop. Mad., Madrid; and Mark Lewis, researcher at the Natural History Museum, London

Telling the Truth in Historic Houses: How Substitutes Can be Authentic
Pete Brown, Museum and gallery access, learning & interpretation, UK

Did They Really Wear That? – Authenticity and the Construction of Historical Dress-ups
Rosalind Mearns, National Trust of Australia (NSW), Australia

Optimizing Authenticity: The Dialectics of Heritage
Deepak Chhabra, Arizona State University

Constructions of Authenticity at Scottish Historic House Museums
Anna Venturini, MA, MLitt, Christie’s, London, UK

Restored and Regretted: A History of Staging Authenticity at the Dutch Palace Het Loo
Hanneke Ronnes, PhD, University of Amsterdam & University Groningen, The Netherlands; Bob van Toor, MA, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Celebrity or Aesthetics: Interpreting the Billiard Room at the Mark Twain House in Hartford, Connecticut
Rachel H. R. Hunnicutt, Independent Scholar, USA

Conserving Authenticity: Artifact Treatment Choices in Creating the Authentic Environment
Nancy E. V. Bryk, Eastern Michigan University, USA

A Family Home Once Again: How Authentic is the Visitor’s Experience of an Edwardian Country House at Sewerby Hall?
Robert Chester, UK

Authenticity of Historical Residential Houses at Sirpur: A Case Study on the Basis of Structure and Landscape
Dr. Vishi Upadhyay, Assistant Curator, Bihar Museum, Patna, Bihar, India, and Shivi Joshi, Assistant Professor, Amity University, Raipur, Chhattisgarh, India

The Paradox of Ostankino: Some Premises Concerning Exegesis of the Ostankino Ensemble
Gennady V. Vdovin, Ph.D., Director Ostankino Manor-Museum | Translated by Dr Alyona Kharitonova