

Call for Papers for a Special Issue on Hospitality Finance and Accounting

Cornell Hospitality Quarterly
Call for Papers

This special issue solicits original research papers dealing with finance and accounting in the hospitality industry. For this special issue we encourage authors to submit manuscripts that address issues dealing with hospitality finance and accounting, broadly defined, including but not limited to:

- Capital budgeting
- Capital markets and Investments
- Capital structure and Leverage
- Cash flow analysis
- Corporate governance
- Corporate investment
- Cost management
- Earnings management
- Economics of sustainability
- Financial innovation
- Financing behavior/raising capital
- Financial reporting
- Hotel REITs
- Management accounting and control
- Managerial financial decision-making
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Payout policy
- Performance measurement/management
- Real estate
- Risk management
- Uniform System of Accounts for the Lodging Industry (USALI)
- Valuation

Guest Editor for the special issue: Pamela Moulton, The Hotel School, Cornell University (pmoulton@cornell.edu)

Submissions now being accepted

Submission Deadline: February 15, 2018

Interested authors should submit through the journal's website: <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cq>

About the Cornell Hospitality Quarterly

The Cornell Hospitality Quarterly is a peer-reviewed, scholarly journal that is published quarterly in association with the Cornell University School of Hotel Administration. The CQ aims to be a source of the best advances in theory and/or research relevant to management of the hospitality industry broadly defined to include all businesses or other organizations involved in the transport, accommodation, feeding, entertainment, and caretaking of voluntary travelers away from home. The CQ has an acceptance rate of about 15% and a 2016 ISI Impact Factor of 2.66. Papers and research notes on any topic, from any discipline and using any methodology are welcome provided they sufficiently advance our understanding of how to manage hospitality businesses and organizations.