Acknowledgements

[Any acknowledgements should appear first at the end of your manuscript prior to your Declaration of Conflicting Interests (if applicable), any notes and the References.

All contributors who do not meet the criteria for authorship should be listed in an ‘Acknowledgements’ section (for guidance on authorship see <https://uk.sagepub.com/en-gb/eur/manuscript-submission-guidelines#Authorship>). Examples of those who might be acknowledged include a person who provided purely technical help, writing assistance, or a department chair who provided only general support. Authors should disclose whether they had any writing assistance and identify the entity that paid for this assistance.]

Funding Acknowledgement

To comply with the guidance for Research Funders, Authors and Publishers issued by the Research Information Network (RIN), F&P additionally requires all Authors to acknowledge their funding in a consistent fashion under a separate heading. Please visit [Funding Acknowledgements on the SAGE Journal Author Gateway to confirm the format of the acknowledgment text in the event of funding or state in your acknowledgments that: This research received no specific grant from any funding agency in the public, commercial, or not-for-profit sectors.]

Notes

[Insert any notes here; do not use Word endnote function as this will result in your notes appearing after the references; use superscript (found in font tab) numbers in text and insert the numbered notes here.]
