

SAGE Announces Journal of Attention Disorders Open Call for Editor

SAGE is accepting applications for the Editor position of the Journal of Attention Disorders. This peer-reviewed and international publication has been servicing the field of psychiatry and developmental psychology in pursuit of high impact content since its establishment in 1996.

We are currently accepting editor applications for a three-year term commencing January 1, 2024.

The Journal of Attention Disorders (JAD) focuses on basic and applied science concerning attention and related functions in children, adolescents, and adults. JAD publishes articles on diagnosis, comorbidity, neuropsychological functioning, psychopharmacology, and psychosocial issues. The journal also addresses practice, policy, and theory, as well as review articles, commentaries, in-depth analyses, empirical research articles, and case presentations or program evaluations.

2-Year Impact Factor: 3.196
5-Year Impact Factor: 3.412

Applicants should send a letter of interest with an attached copy of their CV to Danielle Bath, Publishing Editor, at danielle.bath@sagepub.com by May 1, 2023. Please put “JAD Editor Application” in the email subject line.
