

MJ

CALL FOR PROPOSALS SPECIAL ISSUES

MAASTRICHT JOURNAL of European and Comparative Law

The Maastricht Journal of European and Comparative Law warmly invites the submission of proposals for a special issue to be published in a volume of the Maastricht Journal in the upcoming year. The deadline for submission of such a proposal is on: 15 DECEMBER 2022

*The Maastricht Journal is a unique peer-refereed journal publishing six issues per year, serving academics and legal practitioners who want to stay informed regarding developments and challenges within the lus Commune Europaeum. The journal publishes articles, case notes, legal debates, legal developments and commentaries by leading academics and professionals in the areas of European and Comparative Law and covers areas of interest in both European Law and in the comparative laws of European states.*

LENGTH/SCOPE

A special issue in the Maastricht Journal can contain up to eight articles plus an introduction and/or conclusion. Each paper is up to 8.000 words in length, including footnotes.

Proposals shall include:

- an introduction to the special issue providing a description of the topic and a motivation why the issue should be published in the Maastricht Journal (up to 4 pages);
- a list of content;
- the confirmation of all authors involved;
- short abstracts (150-200 words) for each paper.

PEER-REVIEW

The guest editor(s) should provide for a peer review of the papers. In addition, the members of the Editorial Committee of the Maastricht Journal will review all papers and reserve the right to provide comments or to reject papers.

HOW TO SUBMIT

Please send the relevant documents and/or any questions to the Executive Editor at: maastricht.journal@maastrichtuniversity.nl

MORE INFORMATION

<http://journals.sagepub.com/home/maa>

