

Multiple Sclerosis Journal

Call for European Editor for Multiple Sclerosis Journal!

Multiple Sclerosis Journal is a peer-reviewed international journal that focuses on all aspects of multiple sclerosis, neuromyelitis optica and other related autoimmune diseases of the central nervous system. Full aims & scope can be found here.

We are currently seeking a European Editor to support the journal's Editor-in-Chief, Professor Alan Thompson.

Responsibilities of the European Editor role include:

- Managing the peer review of scholarly submissions and revisions via the ScholarOne manuscript submission system, making final decisions, liaising with authors, and overseeing revision of articles.
- All submissions must be handled in accordance with the journal's peer review policy which can be viewed here. The role will include selecting and inviting reviewers in accordance with the journal's ethical policies and procedures and making a final decisions.
- Taking an active role in soliciting submissions and encouraging articles of compelling academic research.
- Assisting the Editor-in-Chief with appointing and maintaining an Editorial Board, including encouraging the Editorial Board to commission articles in their expertise and geographical area and ensuring members reflect the diversity of the field.
- Commissioning special issue proposals on topics of high current interest.
- Acting as an advocate for the journal and promoting it when possible.
- Managing deadlines and exhibiting strong organization and communication skills.

SAGE invites expressions of interest by 10th December 2021.

Those interested in making an application should send a brief CV and cover email. Please outline any experience that you have to support your interest.

All enquiries and expressions of interest should be directed via email in the first instance to:

Edward Newman

Senior Publishing Editor

edward.newman@sagepub.co.uk