Call for Papers

The Nordic Journal of Nursing Research is an international research journal that communicates knowledge about nursing, nursing and midwifery research and development for a global readership as a means of raising the standard and quality of nursing practice, nursing education and methodological development in nursing science.

NJNR are calling for papers on the following subjects:

Health-promoting care of older people, for example:
- Bridging loneliness in older people
- Home care models – perspectives, outcomes and costs

Advanced nursing practice roles – evidence of outcomes, for example:
- Cost-effectiveness in nursing care and management
- Digital health and nursing practice – outcomes and experiences

This Journal is a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics

This Journal recommends that authors follow the Recommendations for the Conduct, Reporting, Editing, and Publication of Scholarly Work in Medical Journals formulated by the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE).
