

The Oriental Anthropologist

Editor:

Vijoy S Sahay

Special Issue on Homosapiens and Criminality

Guest Editors: Prof Shanta Balgobind Singh (School of Applied Human Sciences) and Prof Sultan Khan (School of Social Sciences), University of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa

ISSN: 0972-558X
2 issues per year

Homosapiens and Criminality-Special Edition 2020

The Oriental Anthropologist is pleased to invite articles for the special issue of the journal on Homosapiens and Criminality to be guest edited by Prof Shanta Balgobind Singh (School of Applied Human Sciences) and Prof Sultan Khan (School of Social Sciences), University of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa. The issue will be published as Volume 20, Number 2 in De-cember 2020.

Crime is a phenomenon that has existed throughout time and in all parts of the world. Newspaper features, police reports and the experiences of citizens have helped in focussing the public agenda on crimes and criminality. Globally there has been an increase in the number of sexual crimes, indecent assault, drug-related offences, drunken driving and many more. The special issue of the Oriental Anthropologist will focus on problems like the increasing threat of crime and violent behaviour, its impact on the safety and security of its citizens and the correctional and criminal justice systems of the world. The sub-themes for this special edition is multifaceted and may include the following:

1. Crime committed by humans generally
2. Crime History
3. Environmental Crimes
4. Drug Trafficking
5. Gender and Crime
6. Sexual crimes
7. Nutrition and Crime
8. Correctional Services
9. The Criminal Justice System
10. Social Issues and Crime
11. Victimology and Rehabilitation
12. Youth and crime
13. Migration and Crime
14. Crime in the 21st century

Due date for submission of completed article: 31 January 2020

Word count: Approximately 6500/7000 words

Articles should be mailed directly to Prof Shanta Balgobind Singh at the email address singhsb@ukzn.ac.za