Solidarity here and everywhere the lifework of Barbara Harlow

Guest editors
Avery F. Gordon and Neville Hoad journals.sagepub.com/home/rac Solidarity here and everywhere: the lifework of Barbara Harlow

Guest editors: Avery F. Gordon and Neville Hoad

A special issue of Race & Class in praise of Barbara Harlow, which foregrounds her path-breaking work in decolonisation, imperialism and literature.

Contributions include:

• Two of Harlow’s unfinished book projects on anti-apartheid activist Ruth First and on the challenges of drone warfare

• In the archives with Barbara Harlow by Mia Carter

• Radical revisions: Barbara Harlow and criticism beyond Partition by Salah Hassan

• Methods for a neoliberal order: views on Yemen by Hosam Aboul-Ela

• The subversive pencil: writing, prison and political status by Avery F. Gordon

irr.org.uk/publications/race-class