

Call for Editor-in-Chief

Toxicology and Industrial Health

Outgoing Editor-in-Chief, Anthony L. Kiorpes is looking to hand over stewardship of Toxicology and Industrial Health to continue leading the journal's growth and development.

Toxicology & Industrial Health is a journal dedicated to reporting results of basic and applied toxicological research with direct application to industrial/occupational health. Such research includes the fields of genetic, cellular toxicology and product stewardship, as well as health risk assessment and risk assessment as applied to hazardous wastes/sites and groundwater.

The journal publishes international peer reviewed original research and reviews on subjects of contemporary importance to toxicologists, pharmacologists, and biochemists, as well as technical reports, and meeting proceedings.

This journal publishes monthly and can be accessed at <https://journals.sagepub.com/home/TIH>

General responsibilities of the editorship include:

- Leading on the strategic development of the journal with a particular focus on maintaining and improving quality and impact.
- Managing the receipt and peer review of scholarly submissions, liaising with authors, and responsibility for the selection and revision of articles.
- Encouraging the submission of compelling academic research, with attention to early career authors.
- Maintaining regular contact with SAGE and ensuring the delivery of copy according to agreed production schedules.
- Managing and working in close liaison with the editorial board, ensuring board membership reflects the varying interests and disciplines covered by the journal.
- Promoting the journal when possible.

Deadline for applications: 14th April 2025

All enquiries and expressions of interest should be directed to:

Kirsty Scandrett, Publishing Editor: kirsty.scandrett@sagepub.co.uk

Please include a brief CV, supported by a letter that outlines your experience and ability to perform the role.

Applications should demonstrate: subject area expertise; editorial experience; your aims and vision for the journal; ability to encourage and commission high-quality peer-reviewed content.

Sage seeks an initial commitment of three years and an editorial remuneration is offered. Group applications are welcome and should be submitted as one.
